Nigel is a Chartered Accountant experienced in accounting, financial control and reporting. He was the Group Financial Controller for G4S PLC for 10 years and for 5 years prior to that with Securicor PLC. He is married to a New Zealander and has two grown up children.

Nigel volunteers at Signalong; he sits on the trustee board meetings and assists with the financial reporting and budgeting processes as well as beginning to implement formal risk management processes and any other projects required.

Nigel's interest in communication related issues is a result of having 2 hearing impaired siblings and from working in an organisation that spanned 120 countries.

Nigel's preferred form of relaxation tends to be going to burn off calories at a local gym before putting them all back on again as the cook of his household before falling asleep with an electronic reader in his hand.
