

TRACY GOODE

Name	Tracy Goode
Position	Company Secretary
Organisation	The Signalong Group
Role	I joined Signalong in January 2013 following a long teaching career in a special school in Hereford. My first challenge was to turn around the finances of the charity and to ensure that we are operating under the Charity Commission guidelines. 2016 will see re-investment in our digital offering and re-branding of our existing publications.
Interests	Walking, cycling and dancing.

Tracy Goode is the CEO and Company secretary of Signalong. In addition she is a Senior Tutor who trains prospective Tutors. If successful, they deliver courses to colleagues, professionals and parents in the use of Signalong so that they can communicate effectively with those with a speech, language and communication need (SLCN).

Tracy is responsible for ensuring that the charity remains on a financial solid footing and adhering to the Charity Commission guidelines. Tracy will address governance, copyright and any legal issues with the support of the Board of Trustees.

Tracy was previously a teacher in a special school where she specialised in all aspects of augmentative communication and was a Signalong Tutor.

To relax and keep fit, Tracy enjoys cycling and long walks with her dog. She has an eclectic taste in music and loves throwing shapes on the dance floor.
